Jeanne S. Lauer

Trial, Association Attorney

757-486-7055

jlauer@inmanstrickler.com

Jeanne Lauer specializes in representing community associations. She has appeared on behalf of her clients in federal court and in state court throughout Virginia. Ms. Lauer served on two terms on the Board of Directors for the Southeastern Virginia Chapter of the Community Associations Institute and has recently been inducted in to the hall of fame. Ms. Lauer frequently lectures on legal issues involving community associations.

Bio

Community involvement

Achievements

Related Capabilities

Civil Litigation | Appeals

Bio

Jeanne Lauer is regarded as one of the top, if not the top community association attorney in Virginia. She provides full service representation for home owners associations and condominium associations from creating the association, drafting governing documents such as bylaws and declarations, installing board of directors, advising board of directors, drafting amendments, drafting rules and regulations, filing liens, guiding boards through assessments and special assessments, defending the association in court, and many other areas.

Community involvement

Ms. Lauer has served on the board for the Kings Grant Civic League and also participates in Concerned Citizens for Special People, a nonprofit organization providing assistance and information to the families and friends of people with disabilities.

Achievements

- BS James Madison University
- JD Marshall-Wythe School of Law, College of William & Mary