

Michael A. Inman

Real Estate Attorney

757-486-7055

mainman@inmanstrickler.com

Mike Inman is a partner in Inman & Strickler focusing his practice in the areas of Community Association/Condominium Law, Real Estate and Business Law. He has been in practice since 1973. Mr. Inman received his undergraduate and law degrees from the College of William & Mary, where he contributed to the William & Mary Law Review

Home / Profiles / Michael A. Inman

Bio

Community involvement

Achievements

Related Capabilities

Community Association Law | Commercial Real Estate

Bio

Mr. Inman was selected for membership in the College of Community Association Lawyers in 2008. He was named a Virginia Super Lawyer and also named to the Legal Elite in Real Estate Law by Virginia Business Magazine. Mr. Inman was reappointed to the Virginia Beach Planning Commission to serve a second 4 year term beginning January 1, 2018. He serves on the Advisory Board for the Center for Real Estate and Economic Development at Old Dominion University. For a number of years, he co-authored a column on community association issues which appeared in the Virginian-Pilot. Since 2012 he has co-authored a chapter on common interest communities in Real Estate Transactions in Virginia published by the Virginia State Bar.

Community involvement

The law firm is a member of the Community Associations Institute-Southeastern Virginia Chapter (CAI), of which Mr. Inman is a past director, officer and recipient of numerous awards for extraordinary service. Mr. Inman was also a founding member of the statewide Virginia Legislative Action Committee of CAI, which advocates change in the law and monitors bills affecting community associations.

Achievements

He served on the founding Board of Directors of Seton Youth Shelters, a counseling center and shelter for at risk youth beginning in 1985 and retired from the board in 2018, having served as Chairman for a number of years. Mike was also a 25-year member of the Pembroke Kiwanis Club serving as an officer of the board for many of those years.

You may send Mr. Inman an email at mainman@inmanstrickler.com. You may visit the firm's community association website at www.vahoalaw.com.