

Steven P. Letourneau

Trial Lawyer

 757-486-7055

 sletourneau@inmanstrickler.com

Steven Letourneau specializes in representing clients in adverse divorce and family law matters as well as personal injury and litigation matters. .Mr. Letourneau has appeared on behalf of his clients in federal court and in state court throughout eastern Virginia. Mr. Letourneau graduated from the University of Richmond School of Law after receiving his Bachelor's Degree from Old Dominion University.

Home / Profiles / Steven P. Letourneau

Bio

Community involvement

Achievements

Related Capabilities

Family Law | Criminal Defense | Personal Injury

Bio

Mr. Letourneau was born in Portsmouth, Virginia. His father was a Master Chief in the U.S. Navy and his mother was a Registered Nurse. Mr. Letourneau was raised in Virginia Beach and attended public schools. He obtained a Bachelor of Arts Degree, with honors, from Old Dominion University and his Juris Doctor from the University of Richmond. He was admitted to practice in Virginia in 1987, and is also admitted to the United States District Court, Eastern District of Virginia and the United States Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit. His wife is a retired Virginia Beach Public Schools teacher and their son is also a graduate of University of Richmond School of Law.

Community involvement

- | Old Dominion University Alumni Board,
- | Virginia Beach Lifesaving Museum - past President and Advisory Board;
- | Youth Foundation of Virginia Beach, Inc. – past President

Achievements

- | Mr. Letourneau has several reported cases in Virginia.